Final Project Brief:

Sports news company Sports Inc. Needs a new website to show general sports knowledge about 4 main sports: Hockey, Football, Basketball and Baseball. The news doesn't have to be just professional but wants to be the main focus. They want in depth analysis about the sports ranging from history to rules and regulations. Sports Inc. wants the website to be colorful and have a "popping" appearance that attracts the user well as well as giving the website easy functionality for all users. Must be mobile friendly and be able to work on all platforms.
